

Hey there! With St. Patrick's Day just around the corner, it's the perfect time to have a little fun with GREEN! If you're looking to add a pop of this lucky color to your outfit, there's so much to choose from.

As a color consultant, I'd say it's all about finding the right green for YOU. If you have warm undertones, try a cozy olive or mossy green. For cool undertones, emerald or jade will look amazing! And if you're not sure, try a softer shade like sage for a more neutral vibe. Green is a color of growth and good energy, so go ahead and wear it proudly this St. Patrick's Day—I promise you'll feel great!

Check out my results!
I started using the serum around November and I didn't even take a "before" picture because I honestly didn't expect it to work. When looking back at some of my old Instagram videos, I noticed how "short" my eyelashes looked compared to my more recent pictures and videos...and then it clicked...THE SERUM!

Feel free to check out my Instagram and see what I mean - when you compare the older videos to the newer ones, there's a difference in my lashes!
